Key Highlights

- Site 0.55 acres (0.22 hectares)
- Prominent semi-rural location
- Benefits planning permission for development of 9 residential dwellings
- Surrounding area made up of established residential dwellings including bungalows and detached dwellings

Location

The land is located at Sandy Lane Farm, 186 Sandy Lane, Hindley, Wigan. It lies in a semi-rural position on the eastern side of Wigan, approximately 2.5 miles from Wigan town centre and around 1 mile south of Hindley centre.

The surrounding area comprises a mix of open agricultural land, residential dwellings, and light industrial uses, typical of this part of Hindley. Sandy Lane connects to the A577 (Atherton Road), providing convenient access to Wigan and the surrounding local network. The A58 and A579 offer further links to Bolton, Leigh and the wider Greater Manchester area, with Junction 5 of the M61 motorway situated approximately 5 miles to the east.

This area of Hindley is characterised by a mix of agricultural and mixed-use land, with several nearby sites undergoing redevelopment and improvement.

Description

The subject site is irregular in shape with access taken directly from Sandy Lane and currently comprises a single detached dwelling with a substantial garden and field area to the rear. The land is surrounded by existing housing and gardens, forming part of an established residential setting.

The property benefits full planning permission as detailed below and the access road to the site has been formed.

Tenure

We understand that the majority of the site is held freehold under title number MAN92189. This freehold land extends to 0.507 acres. The planning permission granted extends and includes a narrow strip of land to Norfolk Close which, it has been agreed, shall be acquired from Wigan Council but has not yet completed. Upon an offer for the land being accepted the sale agreement will remain conditional upon the inclusion of this strip of land.
