Location

The subject premises is situated on Junction Lane within the Sutton area of St Helens. The property occupies a position within a mixed commercial and residential locality, with neighbouring commercial occupiers comprising a range of uses including medical and dental practices, alongside retail premises, a post office, and several independent local traders. The property is located approximately 3 miles to the south-east of St Helens town centre and benefits from convenient access to the St Helens Linkway (A570), situated approximately a five-minute drive away. This provides good connectivity to Junction 7 of the M62 motorway and the wider regional motorway network.

Description

The premises comprise a car showroom and garage facility, set on a self-contained site benefiting from an enclosed yard and car parking area. The accommodation includes a showroom area to the front, providing display space, together with a workshop facility to the rear.

The workshop is accessed via vehicular doors and provides practical servicing space, whilst the enclosed yard area offers additional external storage and parking provision.
